LENGHT

Here's to the mini epic. For the second year running, Campaign is getting together with Film4 to reward the commercials that are films in their own right. We rate ads that take their time to tell a story. We're into spots that truly engage the viewer with the brand and make Film4 a cooler place to be. That's why, when you book a longer length ad campaign with Film4, we'll give you a 20% discount.
